

WORKSHOP

UNITO ERASMUS AND BEYOND: ETHIOPIA AND AFRICAN STUDIES

Session 1 – 20th of July at 14:30

Saluti/Greetings

Alessandra Fiorio (UNITO)

Internationalisation in UNITO and Africa

Faris Hailu Tessema (Wollo University)

The University of Wollo, Ethiopia: potentials and challenges

Faris Hailu/Tessema (Wollo University)

Production of Cereals for Food security in Wollo Province for Sustainable development of Ethiopia

Cristina Giacomini (DBIOS)

Maromizaha: a multifunctional centre in a rainforest of Madagascar

Beatrice Demarchi (DBIOS)

Biomolecular archaeology and the African record: past experiences and current projects

Kibrom Fesseha Tesfay (DIST - POLITO)

Urban rural linkages for food (governance perspective) and related opportunities and challenges in Addis Ababa and its hinterland

Hussein Ibrahim/Seid (Wollo University)

Ethiopian primates: conservation issues and research activities in Wollo Area

Ivan Norscia (DBIOS)

Gelada population on the Kundi highland (Ethiopia): survey and health assessment

Session 2 – 21st July at 9:00

Cecilia Pennacini (Dipartimento di Culture, Politica e Società – CPS)

The Italian Ethnological Mission in Equatorial Africa (MAECI) and the Erasmus programme Turin-Makerere (Uganda)

Anna Fioccardi (DISAFA)

Agroforestry and genetic resources for agriculture: implications for rural development

Gezahegn Getachew/ Zelelew (Wollo University)

The ecology of Wildlife in South Wollo, Ethiopia: The Role of Chemical Communication

Dagnachew Mulu/Lakew (Wollo University)

Ethnobiology practices in Ethiopia: the case of Wollo area

Marta Caselli (DBIOS)

The roots of empathy in gelada monkeys from Ethiopia: a PhD project

Francesca Baratta (per Boschi e Abollino) - DSTF

"Pharmacy compounding of personalized preparations: challenges and advantages in developing Countries. Results from the A.P.P.A.® Project"

Il giorno delle presentazioni è corretto. L'ordine delle presentazioni è solo indicativo.

Il workshop, se seguito integralmente, vale 1 CFU per gli studenti iscritti a corsi DBIOS. Sarà registrata la presenza e rilasciato un attestato.